Canal Cheong Jagerroos 張彤茹 (b. 1968) in China, grew up in an artistic family in Macau. With nearly 100 successful exhibitions accomplished, Canal Cheong Jagerroos is an established Chinese international artist. In a fascinating way, the works of Canal Cheong Jagerroos combines the past and present, East and West. For the past 30 years, Cheong Jagerroos has lived and worked in numerous countries, from Asia to Europe and Africa. The unique experiences of culturally diverse places have influenced her artistic work both consciously and subconsciously. In her works, Cheong Jagerroos blend the Chinese language symbols and contemporary art and gives birth to a mysterious and vibrant color by painting multiple layers with mixing different materials. Intensive painting sessions lead to works where Canal Cheong Jagerroos embrace positive energy, peace and harmony. Canal Cheong Jagerroos current solo exhibition "Blue and Red - Extract" is on view at Rovaniemi Korundi Art Museum in Finland through May 2020.
